Print-on-Demand Information and Benefits

It is now economical to print as few as one copy of a title, which can be supplied to booksellers worldwide in the same way that we supply a book from stock.

With very little investment new books including out of stock and out of print titles can be made available - extending the life of your catalogue. Publishers already using POD include Pearson Education, Bloomsbury Academic, Elsevier and many more.

Please note, publishers wishing to use Gardners POD Service are required to have a minimum of 5 titles in order to set up an account. Initial set up takes approximately 10 working days for new titles.

Benefits:

- Short print runs from as few as one copy
- Out of print titles can be brought back to life
- Library demands for small quantities can be met
- Exclusive editions for different markets
- Maintenance of copyright
- Pricing flexibility
- Stock available within 48 hours*
- No warehouse storage costs
